

Call for Entries from Indian Country

1st Annual NativeEnergy “Energy in Motion” Photography Competition

NativeEnergy, Inc. is a leader in the emerging voluntary carbon offsets market. NativeEnergy is proud of its role in providing high quality carbon offsets for and in our pioneering work expanding the voluntary carbon offsets market.

Our universe and planet provide energy in multiple forms. Renewable energy sources come from solar, wind, hydro, geo-thermal, and bio-mass. Wind swirling the feathers of your regalia, the sun's rays warming your Grandfather as he sits outside, little kids building a dam in the stream with funnels for water to pass are examples of the use of energy in our daily lives. We challenge you to capture renewable energy use in action in an image for submission as an entry to this competition.

BASIC RULES OF COMPETITION –

For complete set of rules, please see 1st Annual NativeEnergy “Energy in Motion” Photography Competition Official Rules.
